

Clarification Regarding False Information in Circulation

Dear Suppliers and Clients,

We are writing to categorically deny false information that has recently been circulating, claiming that our company has ceased operations.

We want to be clear: this information is completely false and was spread by Mr. Guasp Villalba Lucas Fabian, who left the company 3 months ago and no longer has any employment, business, or representational relationship with us. Any communication, action, or message made by this person on behalf of our company after that date is invalid and does not commit us in any way.

Our company continues to operate normally, fulfilling all of our business commitments, deliveries, and obligations to suppliers and clients.

Given the seriousness of the damage this false information may cause to our reputation and business relationships, we inform you that we will be initiating the corresponding legal action against Mr. Guasp Villalba Lucas Fabian for spreading false information and for any resulting damages.

Thank you for your trust, and we remain available for any inquiries.

Kind regards,
